1. Policy Statement

- 1.1 Clydesdale Housing Association (CHA) is a not-for profit housing association registered under the Co-operative and Community Benefits Societies Act 2014 (registered number 2237R(S)). It is also recognised by HM Revenue and Customs as a Scottish charity (charity number SC034228) and is registered with The Scottish Housing Regulator under the Housing (Scotland) Act 2010 as a registered social landlord (registration number HAL93).
- 1.2 The objects (purpose) of CHA are as follows:
- to provide for the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage through the provision, construction, improvement and management of land and accommodation and the provision of care; and
 - any other purpose or object permitted under Section 24 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2010 which is charitable both for the purposes of Section 7 of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and also in relation to the application of the Taxes Acts.
- 1.3 CHA is a Membership organisation and our Membership is made up of people and organisations who hold a share in the Association and whose names are entered into our Register of Members.
- 1.4 CHA aims to establish a wide and active Membership by recruiting people and organisations who:
- are committed to supporting our work, and
 - will serve the best interests of CHA and its tenants, and
 - live, work or have another connection with the communities we operate within.
- 1.5 We aim to make sure membership open to all sections of the community we serve.
- 1.6 We seek to promote and to achieve equality of treatment and opportunity for all groups in society without discrimination or prejudice on any grounds. The Equality Act 2010 introduces the term “protected characteristics” to describe groups against whom any sort of discrimination is unlawful. Section 4 of the Act specifies nine protected characteristics:
- Age
 - Disability
 - Marriage and civil partnership
 - Pregnancy and maternity
 - Race
 - Religion or belief
 - Gender (referred to as “sex” in the Act)
 - Gender reassignment
 - Sexual orientation

- 1.7 Whether an individual or group possesses one or more of the protected characteristics, or belongs to a group not specifically mentioned in the Act, we will take all reasonable steps to ensure that no discrimination, whether deliberate or inadvertent, occurs. Particular efforts may be made to encourage Membership uptake from groups that are currently (or have historically been) under-represented in the Association's Membership.
- 1.8 We will collect anonymised equality profiling information from Members on a regular basis to enable us to implement 1.7.
- 1.9 This Membership Policy aims to ensure that CHA has a strong and supportive Membership.

2. Benefits of Membership

- 2.1 Members of CHA enjoy the following benefits:

 - Members participate in a vote to appoint CHA's auditors.

5. Representing an Organisation

5.1 An organisation which is a Member is free to nominate any person it considers suitable as its representative to CHA. That person will represent all of the organisation's rights and powers at general meetings.

5.2 The organisation must confirm the identity of its representative to CHA. This confirmation should be signed by an authorised signatory of the organisation and witnessed.

5.3 An organisation can change the identity of its representative by confirming the identity of the new representative and withdrawing the authority of the original representative.

5.4 Representatives of organisations cannot be an individual Member of CHA at the same time. CHA Members who represent organisations on our Membership will have their individual Membership suspended until such time as they are no longer a representative of an organisation.

5.5 Representatives of organisations will not be eligible to stand for election to the Management Committee. Although, like any other Member, an organisation which is a Member can nominate an individual who is a Member to stand for election to the Management Committee.

6. Ending a Membership

6.1 A Membership will end and the Management Committee will cancel a share and record the ending of a Membership in the Register of Members if:

- A Member resigns, giving 7 days-notice in writing to our Secretary;
- The Management Committee reasonably believes that a Member has failed to tell CHA of a change of address as required by our Rules;
- For five annual general meetings in a row a Member has not attended, submitted apologies, or appointed a representative to attend and vote on their behalf by proxy;
- The Member dies and has not nominated a person to transfer their share to in the event of their death (Members can nominate a person that CHA must transfer their share to when they die – our Rules explain how this works in more detail).

6.2 A Membership will also end if CHA receives a complaint about a Member's behaviour and two-thirds of the Members voting at a special general meeting agree to end that Membership. The following conditions will apply to this procedure:

- the complaint must be in writing and must relate to behaviour which could harm the interests of the Association;
- the Secretary must notify the Member of the complaint in writing not less than one calendar month before the meeting takes place (another Office Bearer will perform this duty where the Secretary is involved in the complaint);

- the notice for the special general meeting will give details of the business for which the meeting is being called;
- the Member complained about will be called to answer the complaint at the meeting. The Members present will consider the evidence supporting the complaint and any evidence the Member complained about decides to introduce;
- the Members can vote in person or through a representative proxy;
- if the Member complained about receives proper notice but does not go to the meeting without providing a good reason, the meeting will go ahead without them and the Members will be entitled to vote to end that Membership.

6.3 A Membership ended in accordance with 6.2 will result in them immediately ceasing to be a Member from the date that the decision to end the Membership was taken and any further application for membership by those affected will need to be approved by two-thirds of the Members voting at a general meeting.

7. Membership Review

7.1 CHA will from time to time carry out a review of its Membership to determine how representative it is of the local community and of the Association's client groups. Steps will be taken to encourage new Members in order to redress any imbalances identified.
